"Family Face Off" Group Game DJ Occasions

"It is like the TV game but each team takes a turn trying to match the most popular responses to survey questions. We don't call on anyone. Participation is voluntary. You have to think how 100 other people will answer questions so it definitely helps stimulate the brain."

September 19th, 2023 from 10:15-11:15

"Most Likely" Group Game DJ Occasions

"How many people playing the game have ever ridden a motorcycle? How many ever skipped school? Was anyone ever on the radio? Even if you guess wrong, you'll still have a great time learning new things about your friends, co-workers, or neighbors. All you have to do is guess how many people will answer the host's questions with "Yes". If you guess correctly, your team gets a point. If not, there still will probably be an interesting story behind someone's answer."

Circus brings us all together by learning something new and engaging, through the spirit of play and collaboration. There is something about the circus that draws us back every time and it's not a big secret. It's simple! The circus is fun. Staying active is important for health and learning circus technique is also a great way to keep our minds sharp. In this 12 week program you'll learn theatrical clowning, juggling, hooping, feats of balance, and poi spinning from circus artists Jenny Hill and Chris Tamburro. This inspiring circus experience culminates in a group celebration that demonstrates the joy, dedication, and collaborative effort that is inherent in circus arts. This will be open to the attendance of family, friends, and community members. We look forward to meeting you under the Big Top at White Rose!

Sessions are the following Mondays and Fridays, from 10:30 - 11:30. Wear comfortable clothing and shoes for movement.
